Policies and Procedures for Complaints Related to the National Assessment of Educational Progress

Policy Statement

The Governing Board views parents, students, representatives of participating states and schools, and members of the public as primary producers and consumers of National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) data. As such, their experience with the National Assessment is of utmost concern and an important source of information for its continual improvement. It shall be the policy of the National Assessment Governing Board to respond promptly to written complaints about the National Assessment of Educational Progress submitted to the Governing Board. The Governing Board intends the process of handling complaints to be a means both of answering complaints that have been submitted and of enhancing the quality, integrity, and service orientation of the National Assessment.

Introduction

The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) legislation provides parents and members of the public the right to view, under secure conditions, all NAEP data, questions, and test instruments (Section 411(c)). The Governing Board has approved a Policy Statement on Public Access to Test Questions and Instruments of the National Assessment, which is referenced herein.

The same section of the legislation also provides parents and members of the public the right to submit complaints to the National Assessment Governing Board about procedures or test questions.

“Parents and members of the public may submit written complaints to the National Assessment Governing Board... [The Board], in consultation with the Commissioner [of the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES)], shall review such complaints and determine whether revisions are necessary and appropriate. As determined by such review, the Board shall revise, as necessary and appropriate, the procedures or assessment items that have generated the complaint and respond to the individual submitting the complaint, with a copy of such response provided to the Secretary, not later than 30 days after so acting.”

The NAEP legislation explicitly extends to representatives of state or local educational agencies and chief state school officers the right to submit complaints about the National Assessment to the Governing Board (Section 411(d)(4)).

The legislation gives the responsibility for addressing complaints about NAEP to the National Assessment Governing Board. The purpose of this document is to provide policies and procedures for handling such complaints.

Complaint Process: Procedures

1. What must be included in a complaint?

A complaint about the National Assessment of Educational Progress must be submitted in writing to the National Assessment Governing Board (NAGB). The complaint must include the name and address of the person submitting the complaint and a description of the complaint. The complaint may also include the remedy being sought.

If the complaint is about a test question, special care must be taken by the person submitting the complaint because the security of test questions not released to the public must be protected. Unauthorized release of secure test questions is a felony, subject to fines and imprisonment. To protect the security of test questions, therefore, an individual submitting a written complaint about a test question should describe the specific complaint in a manner that does not reveal the content of the test question itself.

2. Where should complaints be sent?

The mailing address is: National Assessment Governing Board, Suite 825, 800 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20002-4233. The e-mail address is NAGB@ed.gov. If submitting a complaint by e-mail, the person submitting the complaint must provide his/her full name and a mailing address because the response to the complaint will be in the form of a letter and will be sent by regular mail.

3. What happens to complaints after they are received by the Governing Board?
